On Thankful Thursday, we celebrated with Elvis entering the building, so lots of amazing contribution that they make every day supporting our residents.

Our activity staff continue to find new ways to bring art and craft to our residents. They have enjoyed the activity of 'Whose Behind the Mask' and have really engaged in making their own beautiful masks.

Busy Times ...

Our residents have had a great time with the various activities and events we've organised over the past few months.

The most spectacular event was the whole sky around the Frinton area lit up with

We have sourced a new labelling system and we are trialling this at the home on our dementia community. The new system is called Attach A Tag and is like a little button which is put on clothes with the room number on. At present, we are trialling it for rooms 38-55. All underwear, socks, tights, etc. will be put into a net bag which is you do purchase your family member new clothes, would you please let laundry numbered. We will purchase 30 tags for these rooms and if you would like to know so they could be tagged or named.

Over the years we have had various conversations regarding the home's vehicle and how it is not accessible for our residents who use a wheelchair. We have approached our head office and great news they agree. Watch this space and we will update you once we know when we will receive our wheelchair-friendly transport.
